

ALISTAIR MACLEOD AWARD FOR LITERARY

Criteria for Selection of the Award Recipient

1. To recognize sustained excellence in writing
2. To recognize organizations that have raised publishing standards, increased general public awareness of the literary arts, or presented innovative methods to disseminate literary arts and the written word.

This Award could go to creative and discursive writing in a variety of forms:

- fiction or non-fiction
- poetry
- screenwriting, playwriting
- journalism
- documentary
- book publishing